Signature of applicant/student

Pacific States University does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, age, religion, sex, national or ethnic origin, marital status, physical disability, or any other legally protected status in the administration of its educational programs, admission policies, or any other University-administered programs or activities. Inquires concerning the application of Title IX of the Educational Amendment of 1972 and other non-discriminatory statutes should be directed to the Vice-President, the University officer assigned the responsibility for reviewing such matters.

Student Tuition Recovery Fund (STRF)

The Student Tuition Recovery Fund (STRF) was established by the California Legislature to protect any California resident who attends a private postsecondary institution from losing money if the student has prepaid tuition and suffered a financial loss as result of the school's closing or failure to live up to its enrollment agreement, or refusal to pay a court judgment.

To be eligible for STRF reimbursement, the student must be a "California resident" and reside in California at the time the enrollment agreement is signed or when the student received lessons at a California mailing address from an approved institution offering correspondence instruction. Students who are temporarily residing in California for the sole purpose of pursuing an education, specifically those who hold student visas, are not considered California residents.

To qualify for STRF reimbursement, the student must file an STRF application within one year of receiving notice from the Bureau for Postsecondary and Vocational Education that the school is closed. If the student does not received notice from the Bureau, the student has four years from the date of closure to file an STRF application. If a judgement is obtained, the student must file an STRF application within two years of the final judgement.

It is important that students keep copies of the enrollment from, financial aid papers, receipts, and any other information that documents the monies paid to the school. Questions regarding the STRF may be directed to the Bureau for Private Postsecondary and Vocational Education (BPPVE), 1027-10th Street, Fourth Floor, Sacramento, CA 95814-3517, (916) 445-3428

Student Rights and Responsibilities

Students enrolling at PSU assume an obligation to conduct themselves in a matter compatible with the University's function as an educational institution and suitable to a member of an academic community. The University therefore expects its students to conduct themselves as responsible individuals who are considerate and respectful of the rights and interests of others. The University reserves the right to exclude at any time students whose conduct is deemed undesirable or prejudicial to the University community's best interest.

If, in the judgement of the administrative officers of the university, a student's conduct does not conform to the above standards, the University will impose disciplinary action. Before such penalties are imposed, the University will have due regard for the rights of the individual and will consider all pertinent circumstances. Penalties may include dismissal from the University, dismissal from a course, suspension, or disciplinary probation. (Refer to the General Catalog 1997-1999, PP, 41-45 for the complete policy.)
